Active Assailant Liability is typically triggered when one or more armed persons are actively engaged in a premeditated violent attack to kill or attempt to inflict bodily injury or cause loss of life to another person(s). The policy is designed to offer cover for attacks using a wide range of weapons, including but not limited to, hand-held firearms, road vehicles, explosive devices, and corrosive materials. The policy is designed to respond when an event causes physical damage to property and / or three or more people (other than the perpetrator) sustain bodily injury or loss of life from an insured event.
